Artemis Strategic Assets Fund Acc
ACD/Manager		Depository/Trustee
Artemis Fund Managers Limited		The Royal Bank of Scotland plc
Fund Code	SEDOL	Fund Type
ATSAA	B3VDDQ5	Unit Trust
Objective
The objective of the fund is to achieve long-term growth through investment in a portfolio of UK and international assets. The fund may invest in all of the asset classes eligible for a UCITS scheme to invest in including equities, fixed income instruments, other transferable securities, units of collective investment schemes, money market instruments, warrants, cash and near cash, derivatives and forward transactions for investment purposes (including taking long and short positions). The fund may also seek exposure indirectly to other asset classes such as commodities and property (for example). The Manager actively manages the portfolio and allocation between the asset classes in order to achieve the objective and in particular when market conditions are less favourable a higher proportion of the fund's scheme property may be invested in cash and near cash. The Manager will not be restricted in the choice of investments either by industry, or in terms of the geographical split of the portfolio and may invest in overseas assets including taking exposure to currency. The fund may be wholly invested in any one of the asset classes listed above at any one time (with the exception of units of collective investment schemes in which it can only invest up to 10% of the scheme property and warrants in which it can only invest up to 5% of the scheme property).
